

Lancaster Area Veterans

MEMORIAL REFERENCE GUIDE

Lancaster Area Veterans Memorial

Dedicated on October 19, 2014

As you look at the Veterans Memorial, you will notice there are 12 panels. There are names listed on both sides of the panels.

The first half of this book lists each Veteran by last name, under the conflict or era in which that Veteran served. Each panel consists of 2 pages of names, except for Panels 23 and 24. The page on the left lists the names that appear on the top half of the panel and the page on the right lists the names that appear on the bottom half of the panel. This list shows the names as they appear on the Memorial. Most of the names on the panels are in alphabetical order. Additional names were added to some of the panels at the end of the conflict or era they served in.

If you are looking for a name on the Memorial and you cannot find the name in the first half of the book, then go to the alphabetical listing. There are a few names on the panels in which the last name is spelled incorrectly. To make it easier to find those names on the panels, we have included the correct spelling of those names in the alphabetical listing.

The second half of this book lists all the Veterans in alphabetical order. After each name, it lists the Panel (P) the Veteran's name can be found on and under what conflict or era that Veteran served.

Each panel has a unique etching on the front and back depicting iconic images or historical moments from U.S. Armed Forces and American history. Each etching also has an American flag incorporated into its design in some way. The two sentinels guard the walkways leading into the memorial.

Panel 1 – Front: Depicting a naval battle during the War of 1812, the scene shows Old Glory. It was during the Battle of Baltimore that Francis Scott Key penned the poem, "The Battle of Ft. McHenry," which was used as the lyrics for the Star Spangled Banner.

Panel 2 – Front: A scene from the Civil War with Confederate and Union flags visible.

Panel 3 – Front: A photograph taken of a Union soldier standing with his sword at his side, a pistol in his belt, and two Union flags behind him of an alternatively used design where the stars are arranged in the shape of a star.

Panel 4 – Front: Another Civil War scene, with the use of cannons, where through the smoke a soldier is carrying the flag.

Panel 5 – Front: Cavalry on horseback carry the flag used during the Spanish-American War.

Panel 6 – Front: An eagle flies over the Tomb of the Unknowns, which was erected in the aftermath of WWI and has markers for WWI, WWII, Korea, and Vietnam soldiers.

Panel 7 – Front: WWII B-17 Memphis Belle, which had flown all 25 missions with crew intact, in a time when many planes would be shot down in minutes. The etching has a flag on our shore to depict her coming home, as she always did.

Panel 8 – Front: During WWII, Boy Scouts were part of collection drives in communities across the nation to help with the war effort. They were also involved in forestry camps, moving felled trees to points of collection.

Panel 9 – Front: A male and female soldier each riding a motorcycle. During WWII, women acted as couriers, delivering vital messages via motorcycle. After the war, those couriers would go on to establish the first women's motorcycle club, the Motor Maids.

Panel 10 – Front: Etched from a painting by Michael James Riddet of Cornelius Johnson, who received the purple heart award during the Battle of the Bulge. A statue of this Grant County native was unveiled in Dallas in 2000.

Panel 11 – Front: Cornelia Fort is prominently featured in this etching. A pilot stationed in Hawaii who fought and died during Pearl Harbor.

Panel 12 – Front: The image of the raising of the flag at Iwo Jima featured Wisconsin native John Bradley, who earned the Navy Cross of bravery for saving the life of a fellow Marine under heavy Japanese fire.

Panel 1 – Back: Uniformed soldiers in a V formation, with the front one holding the flag. Each soldier is wearing a uniform from a different era in American history, starting from modern dress, going back to the Revolutionary War.

Panel 2 – Back: Shows emblems of the branches of service around a flag encircled by stars.

Panel 3 – Back: The U.S. Capitol Building, where Congress resides. It is Congress only who can declare war.

Panel 4 – Back: A naval helicopter retrieves someone from the water as no one gets left behind.

Panel 5 – Back: A Blackhawk helicopter with an American Flag in the background.

Panel 6 – Back: This scene depicts a soldier with his canine partner, a German shepherd. Some 30,000 dogs served the Armed Forces in 20th Century wars. Many died while in harm's way – 325 in Vietnam alone.

Panel 7 – Back: A medic copter lands near three soldiers in a field.

Panel 8 – Back: Marines escorting a casket with the flag draped over it.

Panel 9 – Back: Uncle Sam, used to depict support of the military and war efforts since the early 1800's. Uncle Sam Day falls on Sept. 13.

Panel 10 – Back: Korean War era planes flying in a 'missing man' formation over the U.S. and P.O.W. flags.

Panel 11 – Back: Soldiers from the Korean War in a trench, holding bayonet rifles, watching and waiting.

Panel 12 – Back: Shows a uniformed officer driving an Army jeep in a parade where two children hold a 'welcome home' banner and wave little parade flags.

The two sentinels marking each opening of the memorial represent the soldier of the modern era (north) and those who served in Vietnam (south). The flashlight on the modern era soldier is an actual flashlight, while the rifles each soldier is carrying are exact replicas.
